

Zimmerman Center for Heritage

Zimmerman Center for Heritage
1706 Long Level Road
Wrightsville, PA

susquehannaheritage.org

717-252-0229

May - September
Tuesday - Sunday
10 am-4 pm

October - April
Tuesday - Saturday
10 am-4 pm
Sunday
12 pm-4pm

Ways to Explore:

- ★ Take a guided walk to the site of a 17th century Susquehannock Indian community.
- ★ Tour the historic house and view our collection of Susquehanna River art.
- ★ Immerse yourself in the story of the Susquehanna at our scenic waterfront.
- ★ Launch a canoe or kayak and explore the river.
- ★ Become a National Park Service Junior Ranger.
- ★ Get your NPS Passport stamped.

nps.gov/cajo
findyourchesapeake.com

SUSQUEHANNA RIVERLANDS
PLAY. EXPLORE. EXPERIENCE.

Zimmerman Center for Heritage

Scenic Waterfront & Paddlecraft Launch

River Art Exhibit

School Programs

Native Lands County Park

HISTORY • ART • NATURE

The Zimmerman Center, owned and operated by Susquehanna Heritage, has been designated by the National Park Service as Pennsylvania's official Visitor Contact and Passport Station for the Captain John Smith Chesapeake National Historic Trail.

nps.gov/cajo
findyourchesapeake.com

